

ANTG Strengthens Management Team with New Appointment

ANTG is pleased to announce the appointment of David Wragg, in a newly created role: Partnerships & Distribution Manager.

David joins ANTG from Cannatrek, where he served as General Manager, and brings a strong network of relationships and a proven track record of profitable business growth.

This appointment marks an important step in ANTG's growth journey, as David will work closely with the management teams to assist in building strategic partnerships and enhance distribution networks across Australia.

"We are thrilled to welcome David to our team," said founder Matt Cantelo, "David's, industry knowledge and ability to build meaningful partnerships will be instrumental in strengthening our market position and delivering value to patients, prescribers, and partners."

"I'm excited to join a company like ANTG, whose commitment to quality and innovation aligns so strongly with my own values," said David Wragg.

ANTG looks forward to the impact David will bring as we continue to expand our reach and set new standards within the industry.

About Australian Natural Therapeutics Group (ANTG)

ANTG is a premier producer of high-quality medical cannabis, committed to advancing the industry through innovation, sustainability, and excellence. Meeting stringent global standards, ANTG provides therapeutic solutions that enhance the quality of life for patients worldwide.

Media Enquiries:

Helen Kapalos

Director of Communications and Community
Australian Natural Therapeutics Group (ANTG)

✉ helen.kapalos@antg.com.au

☎ +61 426691703